

Blackberry - Call echo service

Do a secure call to number "600".

A registered voice will respond with a recorded message : "You are about to enter an echo test. In this mode everything you say will be repeated back to you just as soon as it is received [...]"

When the voice ends, the service will repeat all the words said by the user.